Public call for applications for the competitive selection procedure for admission to the 39th Cycle National Ph.D. Course in “Regulation, Management and law of Public Sector Organizations” with administrative seat at the Università del Salento (University of Salento)

Please note: The English version of the Call has been prepared exclusively to facilitate the access of foreign candidates.

Applications for the competitive selection procedure must be made within and not after 13:00 (Italian time) on 1st August 2023.

There is no contribution to participate in the competition.

Academic year 2023/2024

(the official Call is approved by Rector's decree n. 635/2023)

- “Regulation, Management and Law of Public Sector Organizations” (see attachment A)

Article 1) Implementation

The call for application for the selection procedure for admission to the three-year National Doctoral (Ph.D.) Course in “Regulation, Management and law of Public Sector Organizations”, with administrative seat at the University of Salento is now open.

In accordance with the provisions of MIUR decree 226/2021, only doctoral courses that have obtained from the Ministry, in accordance with ANVUR's opinion, accreditation (or confirmation of accreditation) will be activated.

If the course does not obtain accreditation, it will be deactivated and therefore the admission exams will not be carried out.

The PhD course description is attached to this call for applications (attachement A) and is to be considered a part of it.

The PhD course description contains an overall indication of the positions and scholarships available, including:

- scholarships financed with resources from the PNRR (NRRP), Mission 4, Component 1, assigned by the MUR with the Ministerial Decree n. 118/2023, with which it is intended to support the promotion and strengthening of the training and post-graduate doctoral level specialization related to:

• Investment 4.1. “Extension of the number of research doctorates and innovative doctorates for public administration and cultural heritage” which aims to increase the reserve of human capital engaged in research-oriented activities, in public administrations and in cultural heritage.

- scholarships financed with resources under the PNRR (NRRP), Mission 4, Component 2 "From research to business", Investment 3.3., assigned by the MUR with the Ministerial Decree n. 117/2023 and co-financed by companies, with which it is intended to enhance high-profile skills, especially in the areas of Key Enabling Technologies, through the establishment of dedicated doctoral programs, with the contribution and involvement of companies.

Scholarships related to DD.MM. 117 and 118 require the winner Applicants, under penalty of revocation of the same, to carry out the innovative doctoral paths provided for by the aforementioned Ministerial Decree, including the mandatory periods, where provided for by the related Investment, to be carried out abroad as well as in companies, research centers or Public administrations.

The specific provisions are the following:

- for scholarships related to Ministerial Decree no. 117/2023 under the PNRR, Mission 4, Component 2 "From research to enterprise", Investment 3.3:
 - a mandatory period of study/research in enterprise from a minimum of six (6) months to a maximum of eighteen (18) months, even if not continuous, over the three-year period;
 - a mandatory period of study/research abroad, even if not continuous, from a minimum of six (6) months up to the maximum limit provided for in Article 9, paragraph 3, of the Decree of the Ministry of Universities and Research n. 226 of 14 December 2021, over the three-year period;
- for scholarships related to Ministerial Decree no. 118/2023 under the PNRR, Mission 4, Component 1, Investment 4.1:
 - a mandatory period of study/research in public administration, enterprise or Research Centre from a minimum of six (6) months to a maximum of eighteen (18) months, even if not continuous, over the three-year period;
 - a mandatory period of study/research abroad, even if not continuous, from a minimum of six (6) months up to the maximum limit provided for in Article 9, paragraph 3, of the Decree of the Ministry of Universities and Research n. 226 of 14 December 2021, over the three-year period.

The winner Applicants of these abovementioned specific thematic scholarships are therefore required to comply with all the conditions required by the MUR in the aforementioned DD.MM. 117 and 118 and in the Unilateral Act of obligation that will be signed by the University of Salento and for grants financed under the Ministerial Decree n. 117/2023 (co-financed by companies) require compliance with the rules established in the agreements stipulated with companies.

Scholarships 50% co-financed in accordance with Ministerial Decree no. 117/2023 by the companies Evolution S.r.l. and Monticelli La Scala Consulting S.r.l. will be allocated upon the presentation by the co-financing company of an appropriate surety policy in which the University of Salento is a secured creditor, or, alternatively, the transfer of the entire co-financed amount, within the terms indicated in the decree approving the call.

By 17 July 2023 the list of any scholarships (of the two indicated in the preceding paragraph) eventually not allocated will be published on the online register and on the related page of the institutional website of the University of Salento where this call for applications is published, for which it has been ascertained the absence of a surety policy in which the University of Salento is a secured creditor, guaranteeing the financial commitment of companies as co-funding of the PhD scholarship, or, alternatively, the failure to transfer the entire amount co-funded.

The University of Salento will proceed with the revocation of the scholarships, even possibly in progress in the event that, for whatever reason, the ministerial funding granted should cease.

Article 2) Admission Requirements

Admission to the competitive selection procedure to the National Ph.D. Course n “Regulation, Management and law of Public Sector Organizations” is open to all the citizens, without age or citizenship limitations, who enjoy civil and political rights in their state of residence or origin and who, within the expiry date of this public call for applications, as specified in the following paragraph, hold a degree awarded in accordance with Italian Law n. 341/90, i.e. laurea vecchio ordinamento (L), a master's degree obtained in accordance with DM (ministerial decree) n. 509/99, i.e. laurea specialistica (LS) or a master's degree awarded in accordance with DM (ministerial decree) no. 270/04, i.e. laurea magistrale (LM), or a similar and suitable academic qualification obtained abroad.

The course descriptions of the National Ph.D. course, in attachment to this call for applications (Attachment A) contains specific informations relative to the course and indication of the specific types of degree required for admission to the competitive selection procedure.

Provided that they make an application by the deadline specified in article 3 below, eligible Applicants also include, those who will be awarded one of the aforementioned degrees by the deadline of enrollment in the PhD course, pursuant to the provisions of art. 8, paragraph 1, of the D.M. n. 226/2021.

Once they have got their degrees, Applicants must immediately submit by email all the required information (name of institution which awarded the degree, date of issue, type of degree, final mark) either by means of self-certification or by means of a substitute declaration as specified by DPR (presidential decree) no. 445/00 (in the case of EU Applicants) or a certificate (for Applicants from outside the EU) accompanied by a copy of a valid identity document to the following address protocollo@unisalento.it and in cc master.dottorati@unisalento.it

Applicants who expect to get their degree by the mentioned date will be admitted conditionally to the competitive selection procedure.

Applicants, even if winners of the selection, will forfeit the possibility of enrolling in the Course if they do not achieve the qualification required for access without delay within and no later than the deadline for enrollment in the course.

The National Ph.D. course description attached to this public call for applications (attachment A) contains detailed information about:

– the overall positions Applicants may compete for, the grants and scholarships available, and, where foreseen, any positions reserved for specific research themes, financed with grants / scholarships funded under certain programmes/projects or under agreements with external bodies which foresee mandatory research on a precise theme which has already been specified in the attached Ph.D. research course description.

Positions with grants/scholarships subject to a specific research theme, for the purposes of this call for applications, are those positions, specified in the Ph.D. research course description (Attachment A), which - by their particular nature - cannot be assigned purely and simply on the basis of assessment of the Applicant in the general competitive selection procedure but require further specific assessment beyond that of the general assessment.

By applying to the present call for applications, Applicants will automatically compete for the general positions announced.

In addition to applying for general positions, Applicants can participate in the competitive selection procedure for positions with grants/scholarships subject to maximum 2 specific research themes from among those published for the Ph.D. research course (attachment A).

This choice must be clearly indicated in the online application by specifying the type of grant /scholarship for the specific chosen research area, among those listed in the Attachment A.

The Applicant who presents an application for a position with a grant/scholarship subject to a specific research theme (pre-defined topics nn. 1-5 indicated in the Attachment A), expresses his / her preference for the assignment of the specific position (positions) with grant/scholarship (grants/scholarships).

The choice made by the Applicant is binding and irrevocable and entails the obligation on the part of the same Applicant, in the event that he / she is the Winning Applicant, to accept the position with a scholarship subject to a specific research theme.

In the event that the candidate is the winner of two specific research - themed scholarships at the same time, he/she must proceed, no later than 5 days from the date of publication of the decree in the online register, to exercise their choice for one of the two positions.

Applicants who do not apply for positions subject to a specific research theme (with or without a grant/scholarship) take part exclusively in the competitive selection procedure for general research positions with a grant/scholarship.

Candidates wishing to participate in the competition for the assignment of positions with a pre-defined topic (pre-defined topics nn. 1-6 indicated in the Attachment A) must submit a research project in line with one of the selected topics and will then be required to carry out the thematic research in case of winning and to comply with the provisions of the agreements signed with the external financing bodies, accepting the provisions and obligations possibly provided for in the same agreements.

Aptitude or experience regarding the research theme chosen must be declared when submitting the application for participation in the competitive selection procedure and will be evaluated by the Admission Board during the interview.

Art. 3 – Application Procedure

Applications for the competitive selection procedure must be made within and not after 13:00 (Italian time) on 1st August 2023.

The application shall be made, under penalty of exclusion, exclusively online, by following the appropriate procedure made available at: <https://studenti.unisalento.it>

To access the procedure, you must:

- a) Log on to the said website <https://studenti.unisalento.it> and select, in the top right corner, in the MENU tab, your chosen language (Italian or English)
- b) If the Applicant has not already registered, complete the registration process, clicking on “REGISTRAZIONE” in the “AREA RISERVATA”, or access using your credentials;
- c) The applicant who has already registered on Esse3 can directly access the above mentioned website (accessing from "Authentication procedure - LOGIN") and log in with the credentials he/she already have.
On the other hand, foreign applicants will be able to access the website <https://studenti.unisalento.it> through "Registration for foreign candidates"/“Registrazione per candidati stranieri” without having to activate the SPID. All other applicants must activate SPID level 2.
The information needed to activate SPID can be found at <https://www.spid.gov.it/richiedi-spid>;
- d) Go to the portal (authentication - LOGIN) on the banner “Accedi al Portale degli studenti” and click on “REGISTRAR’S OFFICE/ADMISSION TEST/ISCRIZIONE CONCORSI/DOTTORATO DI RICERCA”.
Choose the Doctorate Course in “Regulation, Management and Law of Public Sector Organizations”and, after carefully reading this call for application and its attachment A, complete the on-line application form, entering all the required data. The procedure described in this paragraph is obligatory in order to be admitted to the competitive selection procedure.

- e) Complete the online application form and attach all required documents in pdf, jpeg or tiff formats.

The online procedure for the submission of the application for participation in the competitive selection procedure will be available at <https://studenti.unisalento.it> starting from 13:00 (Italian time) from 1 p.m. on the day following the publication of this call for applications on the University of Salento's online notice register.

There is no contribution to participate in the competition.

ITALIAN TAX CODE (CODICE FISCALE) FOR FOREIGN APPLICANTS

N.B. For first time users, the system will require mandatory indication of their Italian tax code (codice fiscale).

International students who do not have an Italian tax code will be directed to the following link: www.codicefiscale.com where he or she can obtain one, simply by inserting the name of the country or state in which he or she was born (e.g. someone who was born in Paris should simply put "France").

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants are kindly requested to rigorously follow in detail all the following instructions:

- The files required by the electronic procedure must be attached in pdf, jpg or tiff formats.

These files must be inserted in the relevant section of the online procedure and must be named in the following manner:

- identity card: CI_Applicant's name (eg. CI_JACKSON)
- curriculum vitae: CV_Applicant's surname (e.g. CV_JACKSON)
- self-certification of exams: ESAMI_Applicant's surname (e.g. ESAMI_JACKSON)
- other qualifications: TITOLO_1_Applicant's surname; TITOLO_2_Applicant's surname; TITOLO_3_Applicant's surname; etc;
- research project: PROGETTO_ DIN Regulation Applicant's surname;
- account MICROSOFT TEAMS for REMOTE interview: account_TEAMS_Applicant's surname;

It is recommended not to exceed the overall 25 characters in the file name to avoid problems when downloading them from the Esse3 platform.

In the section related to the insertion of TITLES under "TYPOLOGY", the system asks to choose from a drop-down menu among various items (e.g. C.V., CARTA DI IDENTITA'/IDENTITY CARD, Progetto di ricerca/Research Project, Autocert. Esami/Self-certification of exams, Altri titoli/Other qualifications, interview remotely by TEAMS etc.).

For each TYPOLOGY OF TITLE entered, the applicant must fill in the TITLE section.

The applicant must include the following information in that section:

- for the TITLE related to the "CARTA DI IDENTITA'/IDENTITY CARD" it will be necessary to insert "CI surname applicant" (e.g. CI_JACKSON);
- for the TITLE related to the C.V. it will be necessary to insert "CV surname applicant" (e.g. ESAMI_JACKSON);
- for the TITLE related to the "Progetto di ricerca/Research Project" it will be necessary to insert "Research Project surname applicant" (e.g. Research Project_JACKSON);
- for the TITLE related to the "Autocertificazione Esami/Self Certification Exams" it will be necessary to insert "Exams surname applicant";
- for the TITLE related to the "Autocertificazione Esami/Self Certification Exams" it will be necessary to insert "title 1 surname applicant", "title 2 surname applicant", etc.
- for the TITLE related to the co-tutor (for the courses that provide it) it will be necessary to insert "co-tutor surname applicant".

Compliance with the above instructions will allow the Admissions Board to review the uploaded documents swiftly. It will also reduce the risk of dispersion of IT documents with objects that are too long during the transfer of data from the online platform.

The University of Salento declines any responsibility in those cases in which the Applicant proceeds to the transmission of the documents without following the instructions above in the naming of the attached files.

COMPLETING THE ONLINE REGISTRATION PROCEDURE

The online registration procedure terminates with the printing out from the student portal of the receipt of the application for admission to the complete selection procedure.

Once the Applicant has printed out the "admission test application", upon completion of the online procedure, he or she can consider that his or her application to participate in the competitive selection procedure has been correctly completed.

With the online submission of the application the Applicant:

- assumes personal responsibility, pursuant to article 46 and 47 of DPR (presidential decree) 445/2000, regarding the declarations he or she has made and the files attached to the online application, in full awareness of the criminal penalties deriving from false statements and / or false declarations;

- examines the methods of processing of his or her personal data.

Candidates are therefore not required to sign the attachments to the application.

N.B. Applicants are invited to submit their application to participate in the competitive selection procedure well in advance of the date (and time) of the deadline for submission of the application to avoid problems of various kinds that could jeopardize the successful outcome of the application transmission procedure.

Indeed, near the expiry time, because of overload due to the high number of users who are completing the online procedure, the system may be subject to slowing down.

Participation in this call for applications does not preclude the candidate from applying to the call for admission to the 39th cycle of other PhD courses at the University of Salento, issued by R.D. (Rector's Decree) no. 594, on 15/06/2023.

Each candidate may submit only one research project for the PhD course for which he / she is applying. Applicants are not permitted to submit as a research project a publication or a thesis already submitted for another degree, master's degree or postgraduate course of study.

If the Applicant foresees that they will obtain a qualification by the deadline for registering for the course, he / she must expressly indicate this fact in the application by filling in the section regarding qualifications for admission with the insertion of the "titolo in ipotesi" ("hypothetical qualification"). In such a case, the Applicant will be admitted to the competitive selection procedure "con riserva" (conditionally).

In order to be constantly updated on news regarding this call for applications, the Applicant can subscribe to the RSS feed associated with the web page of the competitive selection procedure, by clicking on the icon labelled "Sottoscrivi Rss" ("Subscribe to RSS feed") on the page of the call for applications on the University of Salento website and adding it to his or her own RSS reader.

Article 4) Documents to be submitted

Together with the application for participation in the competitive selection procedure, completed online, the Applicant should attach the files containing:

1. a valid identity document;
2. a curriculum vitae containing, among other things, reference to a telephone number and an email address that may be used for all subsequent official communications related to the competitive selection procedure;
3. information relating to the Applicant's completed studies (self-certification or photocopy of a transcript of records indicating the exams taken and the marks obtained on the occasion of the attainment of a three-year, specialist, or Master's degree or a degree of the Vecchio Ordinamento -- an Italian degree of the format before the Bologna Process reforms) , with the indication of the relative

average of marks and of the total duration of the Ph.D. research course in question; students who have not yet completed their degree will be assessed on the basis of the average marks obtained in the exams up to the moment of submission of the application for participation in the competitive selection process;

4. documentation certifying that the Applicant meets the qualifications / experience / activities indicated by the individual Ph.D. research course descriptions attached to this call for applications, which the Applicant possesses and desires to be evaluated by the Admissions Board;

5. your research project (which must be presented together with the application for participation in the competitive selection procedure). These candidates will be evaluated, as far as the first test is concerned, on the research project presented and therefore will not take the written test. Each candidate may submit only one research project for the PhD course for which he / she is applying;

6. the indication of the e-mail address that the Selection Board of the competition will use for the creation of the group on the MICROSOFT TEAMS platform for the invitation to candidates for the interview.

With the application to participate in the competition, each candidate automatically participates in the general positions announced without the need to make this choice in the telematic platform and can request to participate, in addition, up to two specific research thematic positions (pre-defined topics from no.1 to no.6) among those that may be announced for the PhD course, as detailed in attachment A.

The online application is to be considered, for all legal purposes, as an act of self certification of personal data, of the declared qualifications and the statements made as well as of the attached research project (where one is required) and therefore, with the presentation of the online application, the Applicant assumes personal responsibility, pursuant to articles 46 and 47 of DPR (presidential decree) 445/2000, regarding the declarations he or she has made and the files attached to the online application, in full awareness of the criminal penalties deriving from false statements and / or false declarations.

Article 5) Supplementation/ correction of the application

The application form may be corrected /supplemented exclusively by electronic means within the deadline for submitting the electronic application indicated in the previous art. 3.

In order to modify/supplement the application, the applicant must access again the website studenti.unisalento.it and click on "MENU" by selecting "ADMISSION TEST/CONCORSI". So he/she may select the competition for which he/she wants to modify the application from "LISTA CONCORSI A CUI SI E' ISCRITTI". Then it must click on " MODIFICA ISCRIZIONE" and finally on "ISCRIZIONE CONCORSI " at the bottom of the page.

Thus the applicant may access again the submitted application and proceed to replace, delete or add further documents. At the end of the modifications, the applicant will have to transmit the new application form that will automatically replace the previous one already sent. The new application generated by the system will permanently cancel the previous one; so it is recommended to check the correctness and completeness of the documents attached to the last application submitted.

Article 6) Applicants with a qualification awarded by a university outside Italy

Applicants who are in possession of a degree awarded by a university outside Italy which has not yet been declared as equivalent to an Italian degree on the basis of international agreements, must accompany the application form with the following documents:

- Certification of the foreign qualification, together with a translation into Italian or English to be included in the "altri titoli" (other qualifications) of the online application; it must include explicit indication of the university exams taken and grades obtained.

The Admissions Board appointed for admission to the Ph.D. research course will, on the basis of the documentation attached by the Applicant, ascertain the eligibility of the foreign qualification for admission to the Course, "in accordance with current legislation in Italy and in the country where it was awarded and with international treaties or agreements concerning the recognition of qualifications for further education."

In case of admission to the Ph.D., successful Applicants in possession of such qualifications awarded outside Italy must submit, within ninety (90) days from the date of registration, the following documentation:

- certificates and diplomas translated and legalized by the competent Italian diplomatic or consular representation abroad;
- declaration of value of the foreign qualification issued by the competent Italian diplomatic or consular representatives abroad.

Article 7) Responsibility

The University of Salento does not accept any liability in the event of loss of communications due to:

- incorrect information about the residence or the address of the Applicant;
- an Applicant's failure or delay in notifying it of a change of address;
- or technical problems attributable to the email address indicated by the Applicant.

Disabled Applicants, recognized under Italian Law no. 104 of 5 February 1992, must explicitly request in their application form the required support, in relation to their disability, as well as give notification of the possible need for additional time for the completion of the admissions tests.

Article 8) Exclusion

The following applications will be automatically excluded:

- a) applications made and / or received in a manner or timing not in accordance with that specified in the articles 3, 4 and 5 above of this call for applications;
- b) applications from Applicants who do not possess the specific qualifications indicated in the Ph.D. research course descriptions in the appendix to the call for applications or who do not obtain them within the deadline set by the previous art. 2;
- c) applications without a research project, which must be attached when submitting the application form within the deadline specified in article 3 of this call for applications;
- d) applications that lack a copy of a valid identity document, which must be uploaded when submitting the online application form.

Any supplementations or corrections to the application not made according to the provisions of Article 5 of this call for applications or made after the deadline has passed, will not be considered valid.

The person in charge of the administrative procedure may request the necessary clarifications from Applicants only if these do not entail any alteration of the principle of equal treatment.

Failure to provide a curriculum vitae or failure to indicate the university exams taken (with relative average marks) or other qualifications assessed by the Admissions Board, indicated in the relevant Ph.D. research course descriptions, will prevent the Admissions Board from being able to assign any mark under the heading "TITOLI" (qualifications).

In the case of those Applicants who, on the date of application for admission to the competitive selection procedure, are not yet in possession of the degree required to take part in the competitive selection procedure, the Admissions Board may decide to evaluate this qualification, as an alternative to the final degree mark, on the basis of the average mark of the exams sustained in the second level degree course, on the basis of a correspondence criterion that shall be established beforehand.

Likewise, the Admissions Board must establish correspondence criterion in advance with regard to the evaluation of the degree mark obtained abroad by an Applicant.

Candidates excluded from the selection procedure for the reasons mentioned in the previous paragraph will receive written notification, as far as compatible with the interview timetable, to the e-mail address indicated in the application form.

Candidates who do not receive notice of exclusion from the selection procedure are automatically considered to have been admitted to the selection process.

Article 9) Procedure for competitive selection of Applicants

The public selection for admission to the National PhD Course for Public Administration in "Regulation, Management and Law of Public Sector Organisations", aimed at ensuring an appropriate comparative assessment of the candidates, shall be carried out in accordance with the University Regulations on PhD Courses (R.D. no. 433/2022) and with the specific regulatory provisions contained in the Operating Rules of the aforementioned National PhD Course, approved together with the Agreement signed between the partner Universities and adopted in the present article.

The PhD Course includes 6 distinct curricula indicated in the Course Description and listed below:

Curriculum A "Public value"

Curriculum B "Accountability and Sustainability of the Public Administration".

Curriculum C "Ecological, energy and digital transition of the P.A.

Curriculum D "Territorial governance and development programming"

Curriculum E "Public grant and Europlanning in the P.A.

Curriculum F "Health and welfare management".

The competitive selection of Applicants admitted after the evaluation of the research project will be carried out according to the timetable published on the University of Salento website for the competitive selection procedure (see attachment A), at the section "Bandi e Concorsi/Concorsi/Ricerca/Bandi per Dottorati di Ricerca".

If impediments of any kind do not permit the respect of the examination schedule as indicated in the previous paragraph, the University of Salento will publish a notice with all the necessary changes, within three days prior to the date set for the test.

This notice will be published exclusively on the website of the University of Salento at www.unisalento.it in the "News" section and the dedicated section of the PhD Course in "Regulation, Management and Law of Public Sector Organizations" accessibile from the page <https://www.unisalento.it/didattica/dottorati>.

Both will be considered as official notification to Applicants.

The interview will take place exclusively online as detailed in attachment A to this call for applications.

For this Course, candidates must already indicate a valid Microsoft Teams account in the application form (annex 2).

Candidates who must take the interview electronically (all, for the Courses listed in the hypothesis referred to in point B) or only those who are entitled and request it (in the hypothesis referred to in point A), are required, in the "hypothesis for admission to the interview:

- to install the software of the MICROSOFT TEAMS platform;
- to connect, on the day and at the time set by the Commission, to their account indicated in the application form in response to the invitation received from the Commission;
- to allow the Commission, before the start of the interview, to identify, by showing the same document already sent, in copy, as an attachment to the application and to use a webcam during the interview.

Failure to connect, the unavailability of the candidate on the day and at the established time or failure to show a valid identity document constitute grounds for exclusion from the selection procedure.

All candidates are admitted to the competition subject to ascertaining that they meet the admission requirements. The Administration may decide at any time, up to the approval of the ranking, the exclusion from the competition for lack of the prescribed requirements.

If the reasons for the exclusion pursuant to this article are ascertained after the completion of the competition, the Rector with his own decree orders the forfeiture of any right resulting from participation in the competition.

The University of Salento reserves the right to carry out sample checks in accordance with the provisions of art. 71 and following of the Presidential Decree n. 445 of December 28, 2000.

Assessment of applications will be carried out by an Admissions Board that will be appointed by the Rector of the University of Salento and composed of at least five members, proposed by the Ph.D. research course's Academic Board, from among full professors in the relevant Ph.D. research course's subject area. No member may participate in admission committees for the same PhD course for which he or she was a member in the previous cycle (38th cycle) nor will he or she be able to be subsequently part of final exam adjudicating boards that evaluate the thesis Ph.D. students for whom they were on the Admissions Board.

By means of the decree appointing the Admissions Board, the Rector also appoints two professors proposed by the relevant Ph.D. research course's Academic Board as substitutes for the effective members in the event of one or more of them being incapacitated or absent.

The Ph.D.course's Academic Board may also propose an additional expert with proven expertise in the field, also among its components, for one or more of the specific research positions announced.

In this case, the experts shall participate in the selection process exclusively for the assessment of those applicants who have applied for the specific research theme or the specific research position/s for which they have been appointed.

In the event of incapacitation, withdrawal or absence of one or more effective members of the Admissions Board, at any stage of the competitive selection procedure, the coordinator shall make the necessary replacements, based on the names of the substitutes specified in the Rector's decree nominating the Admissions Board, taking into account, where possible, the scientific affinity between the member being replaced and his or her substitute.

The competitive selection procedure to the Ph.D. research course and the corresponding marks that may be awarded are indicated in the Ph.D. research course description (attachment A, which is to be considered a substantial part of it of this call for applications).

The competitive selection procedure will aim to determine not only the knowledge acquired with reference to the research areas of the Ph.D. research course, but also to determine the scientific maturity, flexibility, aptitude, motivation and resourcefulness of the Applicant in the face of possibly new areas of research.

The competitive selection procedure will be carried out, pursuant to article 12 of the University Regulations on Ph.D. research courses (D.R. n. 433/2022) by:

- a) the assessment of qualifications (curriculum, university training course, professional experience and research);
- b) the assessment of a written test or a research project, depending on the provisions of the individual Ph.D. research course descriptions.
- c) an interview (viva voce) aimed at verifying the Applicant's knowledge and aptitude in research regarding the themes of the Ph.D. and research course in the specific themes indicated in the call in the event that the candidate has also opted for specific themes, where present (max 45 pp.), as specified in detail in the individual course sheets.

Applicants are admitted to the interview only if they obtain a mark of at least 30/100 in the assessment of the research project.

The communication of the results of the assessment of the first stage (research project) will be as specified in the Ph.D. research course description, attached to this call for applications, and which is an integral part of said (attachment A).

In the event that a Applicant has submitted an application for a position on a Ph.D. research course related to a specific research theme, as well as for a general position on a Ph.D. research course, the interview will be both on the general issues as well as on the specific theme and will therefore be carried out separately.

In the case of applicants who have submitted an application for a position on a Ph.D. research course related to a specific research theme, as well as for a general position on a Ph.D. research course, the Ph.D. research course's Admission Board may award the research project (which must in all cases be the same) distinct and separate marks within the framework of the separate lists for which the candidate is applying.

The third test (interview) will be carried out separately, preferably at the same location and on the same date, for the general position on a Ph.D. research course and for a specific research theme indicated by the Applicant, according to the procedures described in the preceding paragraph and will give rise to distinct and separate marks.

The Applicant will pass the interview stage only if he or she achieves a mark of at least 30/100. Failing this, the he or she will not be admitted to the final rankings and consequently will not be in competition for the allocation of positions.

At the end of the various selection tests, the Admission Board will draw up a separate list for each type of position (general research positions on the one hand, and positions subject to a specific research theme on the other) totalling for each type the marks awarded to each Applicant in the three different stages of the competitive selection procedure (i.e. research project, qualifications and interview).

Applicants who have opted to compete for both positions related to the general research theme and positions subject to a specific research theme (one or two positions) and have completed all the stages of the competitive selection procedure successfully will be included, subject to the conditions referred to in the previous paragraph, in the two separate rankings with the relative marks.

Applicants who have not obtained a grade of at least 60/100 in the general ranking shall not be included in the rankings for the positions related to specific research theme.

In the event that the same Applicant is the Winning Applicant, at the same time, of the position with scholarship related to the general research theme and the position with scholarship subject to a specific research theme, then the University of Salento will proceed to give him/her the position with scholarship related to the specific research theme.

In the event that the applicant is the winner of two places on a specific topic, he / she must proceed to opt for the chosen one no later than 5 days from the date of publication of the ranking in the online University Register.

Grants/Scholarships for specific research themes will not be awarded if there are no Winning Applicants for the relevant Ph.D. research course with a specific theme.

The winner applicant of a specific thematic position cannot accept the position by renouncing the scholarship, except for specific research theme no. 6 reserved for positions without a grant/scholarship.

The positions related to the general research theme and positions subject to a specific research theme, with or without a grant/scholarship, will be awarded by

Rector's decree to Applicants who are at the top of their rankings up to the number of positions available, based on the principles and according to the procedures described above and those detailed in the attachment A to this call for applications.

The Rector shall ascertain the regularity of the competition procedures and shall approve, by decree, separate merit rankings for general positions and for each of the six specific thematic positions listed in attachment A.

The allocation of the scholarships set out in the aforementioned ranking list for general positions, funded under the Ministerial Decree no. 118/2023, associated with the various curricula and operating headquarters of the partner universities, shall be carried out by the Academic Board, having heard the winners, in compliance with and in the order of the general ranking list approved by the Rector.

Similarly, the allocation of the grants under the above-mentioned specific research themes no. 1 to no. 5, funded under the DD.MM. no. 117/2023 and no. 118/2023, as well as the places without a scholarship under the specific research theme no. 6 associated to the various curricula and operating headquarters of the partner universities, shall be made by the Academic Board, having heard the winners, in compliance with and in the order of specific thematic ranking approved by the Rector.

If two or more Applicants are awarded the same final mark, the youngest Applicant has precedence in accordance with article 2, paragraph 9, of Italian Law no. 191/98.

Where a scholarship must also be awarded, however, the following criterion is applied: article 7, fourth paragraph of D.M. n. 224/99, namely the assessment of the Applicant's financial situation. In case of a tie, therefore, the scholarship will be awarded to the Winning Applicant in possession of a lower ISEE (level of income).

The rankings will be approved by the Rector by decree and published at www.unisalento.it in the "Dottorati di Ricerca" (Ph.D.) section via the link "Bandi e Concorsi" (Calls and Competitive Selection), as well as the in online section of the "Albo" (official register), which will be considered as official notification to Applicants.

This Administration will not send individual messages to interested parties considering the publication of the rankings in the forms and in the manner described above.

The number of places and scholarships announced with the aforementioned provision may be subject to a subsequent extension as a result of the participation of the University in competitive tenders, public notices issued by public or private entities or funding from private entities.

The procedures for assigning any and additional scholarships will be made on the basis of the rules contained in the same calls in which the University will participate, using, in the absence of indications to the contrary contained in the aforementioned calls, the general ranking of the competitions for admission to the 39th cycle of the research doctorate courses referred to in this announcement.

Article 10 - Enrollment on the Ph.D. research course

All winning Applicants admitted to the Ph.D. research course are required, under penalty of forfeiture, to proceed with online registration to the same, within 10 days of the date of publication of the rankings on the University website www.unisalento.it in the section dedicated to “Dottorati di Ricerca” (Ph.D.) via the link Bandi e Concorsi (Calls and Competitive Selection), and in the online Albo (Official register), following the procedures that will be indicated in a special document that will be published together with the decree approving the workings of the Admissions Board.

To enrol on the course all Winning Applicants (including Winners of grants/scholarships) will also have to pay, within the peremptory term of 15 days of the date of publication of the rankings on the University website www.unisalento.it in the section dedicated to “Dottorati di Ricerca” (Ph.D.) via the link Bandi e Concorsi (Calls and Competitive Selection), and in the online Albo (Official register), in a single payment the Puglian (Apulian) regional tax for “diritto allo studio” (Right to Education).

Winning Applicants will not be contacted individually.

The deadline indicated in the previous paragraph (term of 15 days) is the last within which to have obtained the qualification in the case of candidates who have submitted an application with reserve.

Winner Applicants who fail to register for the first year within the time limits indicated above will be considered to have tacitly renounced their position.

The University of Salento at any time of the procedure and also after the start of the Ph.D. research course, may carry out targeted and random checks, under article DPR 71 (presidential decree) no.445 of 28 December 2000, regarding the information and declarations produced by the Applicants, regarding the validity of the documents attached by the Applicants to the online application and it may also request the original of the aforementioned documents.

The University of Salento can decide at any time, with appropriate motivation, to exclude Applicants from the competitive selection procedure due to an absence of the requisites required by the call for applications.

Art. 11) Renunciations and Scrolling of the Rankings

In the event of renunciation or withdrawal by the Winning Applicant for a position (with or without grant) the position that has become available will be assigned by Rector's decree according to the order of the rankings.

In case of scrolling, the succeeding winners will have a period of 5 days from the individual notification of the scrolling to proceed with the acceptance of the relevant place.

The deadline for proceeding with the scrolling of the ranking is of 90 days from the start date of the course, with the exception of the hypothesis of additional places with scholarship funded by external bodies or resulting from the participation of the University in selective procedures.

Article 12) Grants, rights and obligations of Ph.D. students

Successful winning Applicants must also declare in their applications:

- that they have not previously received any other grants/scholarships for the attendance of a Ph.D. research course;
- that they will undertake not to cumulate the amount of the grant/scholarship with any other grant/scholarship for any reason whatsoever, except with those explicitly granted, in addition to the Ph.D. research course grant/scholarship, by national or international institutions to allow training or research abroad or anywhere else away from the seat of the Ph.D. research course.

The winners of scholarships funded under the PNRR (NRRP) Ministerial Decrees No. 117 and 118 must also undertake to carry out all the activities envisaged by the aforementioned Ministerial Decrees, including periods of study and research at a foreign institution and at a company/research centre/institution (where applicable), under penalty of revocation of the grant.

Scholarships will last one year and shall be renewed provided that the student has completed the course of activities for the previous year, subject to the obligation to disburse the grant/scholarship after passing the evaluation to be carried out by the Academic Board by September 31th of each academic year.

The confirmation of the grant/scholarship for the years subsequent to the first is done by formal resolution of the Academic Board of the Ph.D. research course in question.

A negative judgment on the part of the Academic Board will result in the forfeiture of the doctorate.

The amount of the grant is determined by the Ministry of Education, Universities and Research (MIUR) n. 247 on February 2022.

This amount may be adjusted with any increase envisaged by law and by ministerial norms and regulations on the subject. The duration of the scholarship is equal to that of the Ph.D. research course (three years).

The grant is paid by means of monthly payments, in arrears.

The amount of the scholarship is increased by 50% for any periods of residence abroad, from a minimum of 20 consecutive days to a maximum of 12 months, except as provided for in the case of special agreements.

The Ph.D. research course has a duration of three years.

Students are required to attend the courses and carry out the teaching, study and research activities envisaged by the Academic Board and to present, at the end of each year of said course, to the Academic Board, a report on the research activity carried out and the results achieved, in the terms and in the manner established by the Academic Board itself and on the basis of the indications contained in the operational indications issued by the Rector with protocol no. 42975, on 03/27/2020.

The evaluation of the Ph.D. students' activities must be carried out by the Academic Board at least once a year, generally within 30 days from the end of the Ph.D. research course year.

The presentation of the thesis for the final exam must take place within the deadline set by article 19 of the Ph.D. regulations currently in force. The Academic Board will submit the thesis to the assessors only in the event of a positive judgment granted to the candidate's course of studies and the achievement of the necessary ECTS in the three years of the course.

For anything not specified in this article about the rights and duties of Ph.D. students and the institution of the interruption, suspension, revocation or withdrawal from the Course, please refer to the provisions article 22 of the regulations in force regarding Ph.D. research courses issued by Rector's decree no. 433/2022.

Article 13) Exemption from contribution for accessing and attending the Course

All students enrolled in Ph.D. research courses are exempt from the payment of fees for access and attendance of the said courses with the exception of the regional tax provided for in the following article and the stamp duty required by law.

Art . 14) Regional tax for the Right to Education

All students enrolled in the Course of study will have to annually pay the amount of the regional tax for the Right to Education in accordance with the amounts set annually by the Puglia region Right to Education agency (ADISU) pursuant to art. 11 of Italian Regional Law (Puglia) 45/2012.

The amounts to be paid will vary on account of the student's ISEE (level of income) values at the time of enrolment:

Regional right-to-study tax	ISEE (level of income) values
€ 120,00	Students with ISEE equal or inferior to €23.000,00
€ 140,00	Students with ISEE between € 23.001,00 ed € 46.000,00
€ 160,00	Students with ISEE superior to € 46.000,00

In case of failure to indicate their ISEE value, the student will be liable to the highest level of regional tax (€ 160,00).

The amount of the regional tax for the Right to Education and the values for the ISEE bands may be subject to change according to regional regulations.

In such a case, further details will be communicated.

Article 15) Exemption for Ph.D. students with disabilities

Specific forms of total or partial exemption from the payment of taxes and / or contributions for disabled students are envisaged, both with a degree of disability, following the Italian scale of disability, equal to or greater than 66%, and with disability between 31% and 65%.

Students with a recognized disability equal to or greater than 66% are exempt from paying taxes and contributions.

Students with disabilities between 31% and 65% benefit from a partial exemption from the registration fee with linear application until it is zeroed for percentages greater than or equal to 65%.

Art. 16) Intellectual property of research results and publications

Without prejudice to the Italian copyright law (Legislative Decree 633/1941 and subsequent modifications), The intellectual and industrial property rights regarding the results achieved by the PhD student, including, by way of example and not limited to, software, industrial inventions, whether patentable or not, know-how, models, data and data collections, are regulated in accordance with the current legislation and the University regulations and, possibly, on the basis of what is established in the individual agreements with the universities, companies or entities involved.

Article 17) Procedure for attaining a “Dottorato di ricerca”

The procedures relating to the presentation of the Ph.D. thesis and the appointment of the Evaluators and Final Examination Board are contained in the guidelines for the conferment of the title of “Dottorato di ricerca” attached to the D.R. (Rector's decree) n. 105, on 02/21/2017.

The timing of the presentation of the doctoral thesis is instead fixed by article 19, third paragraph of the current Ph.D. research course regulations issued by Rector's decree n. 433/2022.

Article 18) Final Thesis

Ph.D. theses must be in digital format in order to allow their filing, as required by law at the National Libraries of Rome and Florence and at the University of Salento open-access institutional archive if it is already active and available.

The conferment of the certificate of attainment of the title of “Dottorato di Ricerca” is dependent on the depositing, by the interested party, of the final thesis in the University of Salento open-access institutional archive which will guarantee its preservation and availability for public consultation and which will deposit the said thesis, as required by law, at the National Libraries of Rome and Florence.

Article 19) Accessibility of Ph.D. theses

Accessibility to the Ph.D. thesis in the University of Salento open-access institutional archive may be subject to restrictions, for the following reasons:

- a) parts of the thesis have already been submitted to a publisher or are awaiting publication;
- b) the thesis contains sensitive content data (article 4 of decree n. 196, June 30, 2003);
- c) the thesis is financed by external entities that have rights over it and over its publication;
- d) parts of the thesis have been discussed at a date that is earlier than the discussion and thus subject to patent protection;

In the cases referred to in letter b), the thesis will only be made available if it is possible to make the data anonymous.

As for the other cases, there could be a 12-month suspension of free access, but only after the Academic Board has expressed its approval and following a reasoned request on the part of the student countersigned by his/her tutor.

The suspension of free access can be extended, with a similar procedure, for a further 6 months. Any request for a longer suspension period, in any case not exceeding three years, in exceptional and duly justified cases will be evaluated by the Rector.

At the end of the suspension period, the thesis will however be made freely available for consultation.

Article 20) Reference Regulations

Those matters which are not covered by this call for applications are subject to the rules laid down in the University Regulations for the establishment and organization of Ph.D. research courses (DR. Rectors decree no. 433/2022).

The following applies to public employees enrolled in the Ph.D. research courses: article 2, paragraph 1, of Italian Law no. 476/84 as recently amended with Italian Law n. 240/2010.

This call for applications contains an English translation that cannot be used for legal purposes and is exclusively designed to assist foreign Applicants.

Article 21) Privacy policy

Article 13 of Italian Law no. 196 (30 June 2003) establishes that the personal data provided by the Applicants to the University of Salento at the time of application shall be used exclusively for institutional purposes and for the completion of any inherent procedures conducted by the persons carrying out the competitive selection procedure, also by the Admissions Board (at the University of Salento, Ufficio Master e Dottorati), even with the use of computerized procedures, in the manner and within the limits required for the above purposes, even in the event of any communication to third parties pursuant to current national and EU legislation. Providing such information is necessary to assess the Applicants' eligibility and qualifications and failure to do so may preclude such an assessment.

- Bibliografia essenziale, relativa ai testi fondamentali che il candidato intende assumere come riferimento iniziale, da redigere evitando riferimenti bibliografici generici o scarsamente pertinenti al percorso di ricerca proposto.

Il progetto di ricerca potrà essere redatto in italiano o in inglese.

Al colloquio sono ammessi i candidati che abbiano riportato nella selezione del progetto un punteggio minimo di 30/100.

Colloquio (max 45/100)

Il colloquio si svolgerà in modalità telematica sulla piattaforma Teams e sarà finalizzato a verificare la preparazione del candidato e l'attitudine alla ricerca su tematiche oggetto del dottorato.

Durante il colloquio per i candidati italiani sarà verificata la conoscenza della lingua inglese, per i candidati stranieri sarà valutata l'adeguata conoscenza della lingua italiana.

La verifica della conoscenza linguistica, per tutti i candidati, prevede l'assegnazione di un punteggio pari a 5/100 da ricomprendersi nel punteggio massimo conseguibile al colloquio.

Il colloquio si considera utilmente superato ove il candidato riporti un punteggio pari ad almeno 30/100.

A) CRITERI DI VALUTAZIONE DEI TITOLI

La Commissione attribuirà:

- al voto di laurea max 4 punti, sulla base della seguente griglia:
4 punti per voto di laurea pari a 110/110 e Lode; 3,5 punti per voto di laurea pari a 110/110; 3 punti per voto di laurea da 105 sino a 109; 2 punti per voto di laurea da 101 sino a 104; 1 punto per voto di laurea pari a 100; 0,5 punti per voto di laurea inferiore a 100.

- alle pubblicazioni max 3 punti. Il punteggio sarà graduato in ragione della significatività di ciascuna pubblicazione desunta dal rilievo della collocazione editoriale e dalla congruità con le tematiche di ricerca del dottorato. Sono valutabili le pubblicazioni scientifiche presentate dal candidato, già edite o di cui sia attestata l'avvenuta consegna per la pubblicazione al momento della scadenza del termine di presentazione della domanda di partecipazione (con indicazione di ISBN o ISSN o DOI). Per le pubblicazioni in collaborazione, la valutazione sarà svolta purché dal testo sia possibile enucleare l'apporto individuale del candidato.

La Commissione, attraverso un giudizio sintetico, valuterà il complesso degli altri titoli, diversi dal voto di laurea e dalle pubblicazioni scientifiche, risultanti dal curriculum presentato dal candidato e relativi al percorso di formazione e alle esperienze scientifiche, professionali e di ricerca, attribuendo un punteggio complessivo fino a un max di 3 punti.

In particolare, la Commissione considera, oltre agli altri, almeno i seguenti titoli:

- esperienze lavorative;
- premi scientifici conseguiti su base competitiva;
- master universitari e altri titoli post lauream di livello universitario;
- tirocini e stages certificati presso organi giurisdizionali o istituzioni pubbliche;
- relazioni e interventi in convegni; periodi certificati di ricerca presso sedi universitarie o istituzioni/centri di ricerca;
- partecipazione a comitati scientifici o editoriali di collane o riviste scientifiche, nelle materie pertinenti al dottorato;
- qualifica di cultore della materia, nelle materie pertinenti al dottorato.

La Commissione riconosce una valutazione premiale per i titoli curriculari conseguiti all'estero o in sedi di rilevanza internazionale.

B) CRITERI DI VALUTAZIONE DELLE PROVE (progetto di ricerca e colloquio)

La Commissione, nell'attribuire motivatamente il punteggio al progetto di ricerca, utilizzerà i seguenti criteri di valutazione:

- 1) grado di coerenza e di correlazione del progetto con le tematiche di ricerca del dottorato specificate dal Bando, unitamente alla capacità di interconnettere adeguatamente prospettive di osservazione appartenenti a varie discipline giuridiche;
- 2) chiarezza nell'esposizione dei temi e degli obiettivi, precisione nella ricostruzione dello stato dell'arte e rigore metodologico;
- 3) originalità scientifica del progetto di ricerca e suo impatto sullo stato dell'arte in termini di avanzamento delle conoscenze e di novità degli apporti proposti con riferimento ai problemi identificati;
- 4) orientamento del progetto all'internazionalizzazione nello svolgimento del percorso di ricerca;
- 5) logicità, coerenza interna e sostenibilità dell'ipotesi di organizzazione e scansione del lavoro di ricerca nel triennio proposta dal candidato.

La Commissione, nell'attribuire il punteggio al colloquio, utilizzerà i seguenti criteri di valutazione:

- capacità del candidato di fronteggiare una discussione critica e interdisciplinare del progetto di ricerca, di argomentare in ordine ad eventuali obiezioni di metodo o di merito relativamente all'impostazione e ai contenuti del progetto;
- livello di conoscenza, da parte del candidato, delle tematiche di ricerca del corso di dottorato specificate nel bando, discusse in prospettiva interdisciplinare.

Evaluation of academic qualifications (maximum score: 10/100)

- master's degree: max 4/100;

Selection procedures

- educational, professional and scientific qualifications resulting from the curriculum: max score 3/100;
- publications: max. score 3/10.

Evaluation of research project (maximum score 45/100) maximum 10 pages, bibliography excluded.

The research project can be presented either in Italian or English, depending on the applicant's choice.

The project should include the following parts:

- Title, which clearly indicates the topic of the proposed research;
- short Abstract, which shows the coherence of the research project topic with the research themes of the doctorate specified by the Call and summarizes the fundamental objectives of the research project (min.300 max 1.000 characters)
- State of the art, i.e. a brief presentation of the relevant legal production in relation to the chosen topic, which identifies the open problems and the unresolved issues;
- Exposure of the project, explaining the chosen topic; explain the methodologies that the candidate intends to adopt for the research; highlighting the originality of the proposal in relation to the state of the art and the innovations that are intended to be made with reference to the open problems identified, for the purpose of advancing knowledge in relation to the chosen topic; clearly outline the prospects, in terms of scientific results, that the project aims to achieve;
- Hypothesis of organization of the research work in the three-year period, indicating the time phases in which the research activity will be divided as well as the objectives and intermediate results expected at the outcome of each phase;
- Essential bibliography, relating to the fundamental texts that the candidate intends to take as an initial reference, to be drawn up avoiding generic bibliographic references or scarcely relevant to the proposed research path.

The research project can be written in Italian or English.

- The oral examination is open to candidates who have obtained a minimum score of 30/100 in the selection of projects.

Oral examination (maximum score: 45/100)

- It will assess the candidate's aptitude for scientific research on the Doctorate's topics.
- During the oral examination the Commission will assess the applicant's knowledge of English.
- Linguistic knowledge provides for the assignment of a score of 5/100 to be included in the maximum score achievable at the interview.

- The oral examination is considered to have been successfully accomplished if the candidate reports a score of at least 30/100.

A. EVALUATION CRITERIA OF THE TITLES

The Commission will attribute:

- to the graduation result: max 4 points according to the following criteria: 4 points for graduation results that equal to 110/110 and Honors; 3.5 points for graduation results that equal to 110/110; 3 points for graduation results from 109 to 105; 2 points for graduation results from 104 to 101; 1 point per graduation results that equal to 100; 0.5 points per graduation results that are less than 100;

- for scientific publications max 3 points. The score will be graded according to the significance of each publication deduced from the importance of the editorial position and the congruity with the research themes of the doctorate.

For publications with multiple authors, the evaluation will be carried out provided that the text indicates the individual contribution of the candidate.

The Commission will evaluate the publications submitted by the candidate, already published or whose delivery has been certified for publication at the time of the deadline for submitting the application (with indication of ISBN or ISSN or DOI).

- The Commission, through a synthetic judgment, will evaluate all the other qualifications, different than the degree mark and the scientific publications, resulting from the curriculum presented by the candidate and relating to the training course and scientific, professional and research experiences, attributing a overall score up to a max of 3 points. In particular, in addition to the others, the Commission considers at least the following qualifications: scientific prizes obtained on a competitive basis; university masters and other post-graduate university level qualifications; internships certified at courts or public institutions; conference reports and speeches; certified research periods at universities or research institutions/centers; participation in scientific or editorial board committees of scientific journals, in the subjects relevant to the doctorate; qualification as a chair collaborator in subjects pertinent to the doctorate. The Commission recognizes a reward evaluation for curricular degrees obtained abroad or in places of international importance.

B. EVALUATION CRITERIA (research project and interview)

In assigning a justified score to the research project, the Commission, will use the following evaluation criteria:

- 1) coherence and correlation of the research project with the research themes of the doctorate specified in the Call, combined with the interdisciplinary nature of the project; <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2) clarity in the presentation of the themes and the objectives, precision in the reconstruction of the state of the art, methodological and scientific rigor of the proposed research; 3) scientific originality of the research project and its impact on the state of the art in terms of advancement of knowledge and novelty of the proposal with reference to the identified open problems; 4) logic, consistency and sustainability of the hypothesis of organization of the research work during the three-year period; 5) orientation of the research period of the project towards internationalization. The Commission, in motivating the score of the interview, will use the following evaluation criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ability of the candidate to face a critical and interdisciplinary discussion of the research project; - level of knowledge of the research topics of the doctoral course specified in the call; interdisciplinary.
